Hymn: 552 O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness

The Collect: Almighty God, send down upon your church the riches of your spirit and kindle in all who minister the gospel your countless gifts of grace; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

A reading from Wisdom of Solomon [1:13-15,2:23-24]

God did not make death, and he does not delight in the death of the living. For he created all things so that they might exist; the generative forces of the world are wholesome, and there is no destructive poison in them, and the dominion of Hades is not on earth.

For righteousness is immortal. God created us for incorruption and made us in the image of his own eternity, but through the devil's envy death entered the world, and those who belong to his company experience it.

This is the word of the Lord: Thanks be to God

A reading from 2 Corinthians [8:7-15]

You excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking. I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. And in this matter I am giving my advice: it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something— now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has—not according to what one does not have. I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. As it is written, 'The one who had much did not have too much, and the one who had little did not have too little.'

This is the word of the Lord: Thanks be to God

Hymn: 29 Amazing grace, how sweet the sound

This is the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark [5:21-43]: Glory to you, O Lord

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered round him; and he was by the lake. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, 'My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.' So he went with him. And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, 'If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.' Immediately her haemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' And his disciples said to him, 'You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, "Who touched me?" ' He looked all round to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, 'Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace and be healed of your disease.' While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, 'Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?' But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, 'Do not fear, only believe.' He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, 'Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.' And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, 'Talitha cum', which means, 'Little girl, get up!' And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this and told them to give her something to eat.

This is the Gospel of the Lord: Praise to you, O Christ.

Hymn: 314 Immortal, invisible, God only wise

Communion Hymns: 101 : 621

Post Communion Prayer: Grant, O Lord, we beseech you, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by your governance, that your church may joyfully serve you in godly quietness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Hymn: 662 There's a wideness in God's mercy

NOTICES

Pew Cushions – We are hoping to replace the existing worn-out “carpet style” pew runners in church this year with upholstered cushions. This will help make concerts etc, a more comfortable experience! To help with the cost, we are inviting people to “sponsor” a pew cushion. You can sponsor a pew cushion for £100 each. (If you are a UK tax payer, please consider gift aiding your donation). Donations can be given via the Parish Office, or to a Church Warden.

Mini Church – would you like to help your church thrive and grow? If you are interested in assisting with Mini Church please speak to Sarah Bramham.

Organ Recitals – Final recital this Tuesday 7 pm. Free entry – retiring collection

Amazon have now started to reward Charities by giving them 0.5% of eligible purchases through them. We have registered All Saints Bingley. For those of you and your friends and family that shop through Amazon can I encourage you to register the Church as the Charity that you wish to support. To do this put “AmazonSmile” into your browser, create an account as prompted and then put Bingley into the box that asks you for the charity name and the Churches name will come up.
