Hymn: 54 At the name of Jesus

Collect: Generous God, you give us gifts and make them grow: though our faith is small as mustard seed, make it grow to your glory and the flourishing of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

A reading from 2 Samuel [6:1-5,12b-19]

David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. David and all the people with him set out and went from Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the Lord of hosts who is enthroned on the cherubim. They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart with the ark of God; and Ahio went in front of the ark. David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the Lord with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals. It was told King David, 'The Lord has blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God.' So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing; and when those who bore the ark of the Lord had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. David danced before the Lord with all his might; David was girded with a linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet. As the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David leaping and dancing before the Lord; and she despised him in her heart. They brought in the ark of the Lord, and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt-offerings and offerings of well-being before the Lord. When David had finished offering the burnt-offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hosts, and distributed food among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people went back to their homes.

This is the word of the Lord: Thanks be to God

A reading from Ephesians [1:3-14]

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

This is the word of the Lord: Thanks be to God

Hymn: 762 You are the King of glory

This is the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark [6: 14-29]: Glorify to you, O Lord

King Herod heard of the healing of the sick, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, 'John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him.' But others said, 'It is Elijah.' And others said, 'It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.' But when Herod heard of it, he said, 'John, whom I beheaded, has been raised.' For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. For John had been telling Herod, 'It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife.' And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, 'Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it.' And he solemnly swore to her, 'Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom.' She went out and said to her mother, 'What should I ask for?' She replied, 'The head of John the baptizer.' Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, 'I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.' The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

This is the Gospel of the Lord: Praise to you, O Christ.

Hymn: 267 Hark the sound of holy voices

Communion Hymns: 622 Sweet sacrament divine 429 Love is his word

Post Communion Prayer: Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life, ever giving himself that the world may live: may we so receive within ourselves the power of his death and passion that, in his saving cup, we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen

Hymn: 379 Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us

NOTICES

Pew Cushions – We are hoping to replace the existing worn-out “carpet style” pew runners in church this year with upholstered cushions. This will help make concerts etc, a more comfortable experience! To help with the cost, we are inviting people to “sponsor” a pew cushion. You can sponsor a pew cushion for £100 each. (If you are a UK tax payer, please consider gift aiding your donation). Donations can be given via the Parish Office, or to a Church Warden.

Mini Church – would you like to help your church thrive and grow? If you are interested in assisting with Mini Church please speak to Sarah Bramham.

Mens Group - Our next meeting is now on Tuesday 17 July when Tony Stanley will lead us on a short walk. Please meet at Church House for 7pm. Dennis Child

Bingley Show – help is required for setting up and manning the church stand which will be located next to the MU baby change facility. If you can help for a couple of hours on the day please could you sign the sheet at the back of church?

Amazon have now started to reward Charities by giving them 0.5% of eligible purchases through them. We have registered All Saints Bingley. For those of you and your friends and family that shop through Amazon can I encourage you to register the Church as the Charity that you wish to support. To do this put “AmazonSmile” into your browser, create an account as prompted and then put Bingley into the box that asks you for the charity name and the Churches name will come up. Click and it is complete. Any questions please contact me. Dennis

I am pleased to announce that on the 24 June, (along with my sister, niece & nephew) I completed the 15 mile sponsored walk & my mum did the 8 mile walk. All together in total we expect to raise £500 pounds. Many thanks to all who sponsored me & those who donated last Sunday when I started the collection process. Anthony Smith

Gift Aid. If you are a visitor to All Saints and a tax payer would you kindly consider putting your offering into a yellow gift aid envelope that you can find in each pew and complete the information required to enable us to claim another 25% of your gift from HMRC.
